

SHORTWAVE BULLETIN

Issue no. 1774, June 23, 2013.

Deadline e-mail next issue:

0900 UTC, July 7, 2013.

Hoppas att midsommarfirandet nu är ett minne blott och att alla återhämtat sig från dan, potatis, sill och nubbe.

Vädret härnere skulle enligt SMHI bli hur kass som helst. Men inte en droppe regn, ingen åska och en eftermiddag och kväll med sol och lagom värme. Tänk hur fel de har. Man skall helt enkelt inte lyssna på dem.

Härintill finns några korta rader från mitt besök i Köpenhamn på DSWCI's årsmöte.

Trevligt att träffa ett antal nya bekantskaper, vilka alla, precis som vi andra, nått den övfrfe medelåldern.

Det var också något som man starkt funderade över. Hur når vi nya DX-are? Finns de överhuvudtaget? DSWCI är ju sedan gammalt en ren KV-klubb precis som SWB. Min egen bedömning är att inom några få år så är det helt slut på de roliga stationerna på tropikbanden. Programlyssning kan ju sedan lika väl ske på mobilen via TuneInRadio, eller hur?

Keep on

QSL, kommentarer, mm.

Ullmar Qvick: QSL har kommit från Radio Belarus 7255 kHz kort efter 12 dagar, medan Vatican Radio African service öser över mig högar av kort med påven m.fl. men inget med verifikationstext. Jag ska besöka Katolska kyrkan i stan för att överlämna alla dubletter!

Fredrik Dourén: Ett litet bidrag från Borlänge på det vanligaste som hörs nu. Jag har dragit igång Remote-Perseus via 4G och TeamViewer från en sommarstuga med en Super-KAZ antenn innan nya QTH't med bävvar blir färdigt. Trevligt att kunna lyssna "hemifrån" igen. Jag har tyvärr fått vänta allt för länge med plåtslagarhjälp. Ett plåtskåp skall tillverkas att ha prylarna i då jag skall inhysas hos en pistolklubb där alla medlemmarna har tillträde. Skall komplettera TeamViewer med LogMeIn då TeamViewer redan har hängt sig vid ett tillfälle, efter diverse strömavbrott vid sommarstugan efter att åskan hade dragit förbi. Har ca 4 MBit/s uppströms från Remote-QTH't.

Lycka till med lyssnandet när nya QTH:et står färdigt! Det känns väl skönt att slippa åka ut i skogen mitt i natten. /TN

SWB visits DSWCI Annual General Meeting 2013

The annual General Meeting of DSWCI took place at Danhostel Ishøj Strand June 14-16, 2013. As I have never met the DX-ers on the other side of Öresund, I contacted Anker Petersen asking if it was OK to visit their AGM on Saturday afternoon and also participate at the evening meal.

It took only about 1,5 hour from Ängelholm to drive down to the Ishøj Danhostel located just south of Copenhagen. This hostel is very popular for conferences and seems to have a high standard.

After the AGM, which started at 1400, former secretary general of EDXC, Tibor Szilagyi, gave his very personal views of EDXC history which he called "The EDXC / my experiences from those many Conferences between 1981 and 2012". It was very enjoyable to listen to his prime personal memory from each year he had participated.

Then Anker Petersen showed slides from his DX-pedition to Malaysia and Sumatra. A very exciting trip. I asked Anker how many countries he has visited and he said 87!

The newly found QSL's from the 1950ies and 1960ies from their first Chairman, N. J. Jensen was lying on a table for those interested. (Some of those can be seen on <http://www.dswci.org/>)

After a delicious evening meal Anker made a short demonstration of his Bonito Radio Jet. Unfortunately the antenna was too short to pull in any real DX. But the receiver seems to be very competent.

Unfortunately very few DX-ers from the Copenhagen area showed up. From Russia came Omar Cheishvili and from Finland Arto Mujonen, leader of IBB monitoring there and the new secretary general of EDXC, Kari Kivekäs.

DSWCI has the same problems as most other clubs. Most of the board and also the editors begin to reach a certain age and it is difficult to find younger DX-ers willing to take over. The issue how to meet this was discussed like several other things.

A big Thank You goes to DSWCI and the board for letting me participate. Below are a few pictures from this nice meeting.

Anker Petersen showing slides and telling about his trip to Malaysia and Indonesia.

Tibor Szilagyι telling about his personal memories from the EDXC conferences.

Coffee break

The mandatory picture of the participants.

Several are wellknown profiles also for us in SWB & ARC.

Kaj Bredahl Jörgensen is missing and I think he was the one taking the picture.

Anker, thanks a lot for the two bottom pictures. /TN

State-owned radio and TV network will keep broadcasting during restructure after shutdown by prime minister sparked crisis. Reuters in Athens guardian.co.uk, Monday 17 June 2013 23.56 EDT, Jump to comments (53)

A Greek court has ordered the state broadcaster ERT back on air while it is restructured, allowing squabbling leaders of the governing coalition to move towards a compromise that avoids early elections.

The ruling came six days after the prime minister, Antonis Samaras, suddenly switched ERT off to save money and please foreign lenders, sparking an outcry from unions, journalists and exposing a rift with his allies.

The top administrative court appeared to vindicate Samaras's stance that a leaner, cheaper public broadcaster must be set up but also allowed for ERT's immediate reopening as his two coalition partners had demanded, offering all three a way out of an impasse that had raised the spectre of a snap election.

All parties claimed victory from the ruling, which failed to specify whether ERT must restart with programming as before or only partially resume operations until its relaunch.

"The court decision is essentially in line with what we've said: no one has the right to shut down national radio and television and turn screens black," said Fotis Kouvelis, head of the small Democratic Left party in the coalition.

Evangelos Venizelos, head of the Socialist Pasok party, said the ruling vindicated his party's line and reiterated that he was against going to early elections.

An official from Samaras's New Democracy party – which has already scored a minor victory by securing the latest tranche of bailout funds partly due to ERT's shutdown – said the ruling affirmed the government's position that ERT had to be scrapped. "ERT is shut, ERT is finished," said the official.

A live feed of ERT – whose journalists have continued broadcasting over the internet in defiance of orders – showed workers breaking into applause after the court ruling. ERT's symphony orchestra began a concert outside its headquarters, playing an old news jingle to cheering supporters. "I've been here seven nights and this is the first time I've seen people smile," said Eleni Hrona, an ERT reporter.

During talks with his allies Samaras offered to reopen a pared-down version of ERT under temporary management, reshuffle the cabinet and update the coalition's agreement to improve co-operation among parties, a government official said.

Pasok's Venizelos said Samaras had appeared to accept the option of a cabinet reshuffle and better co-ordination. The three political leaders would meet again on Wednesday to agree on how to implement the court ruling.

"ERT is not the only or the main issue," he said. "The main issue is that this government must operate as a government of real co-operation and not as a one-party government."

The threat of early elections that had shaken financial markets appeared to recede as talk shifted to the reshuffle. "No political leader said we must go to elections," another official said. "Elections weren't even discussed."

The coalition parties over the past week had fed fears of a hugely disruptive snap poll by refusing to compromise over an entity widely unloved until its shock overnight closure.

Aware his allies stand to lose heavily in any election, the conservative Samaras had refused to turn the "sinful" ERT back on, vowing to fight to modernise a country he says had become a "Jurassic Park" of inefficiency and corruption.

His coalition partners had previously rejected Samaras's offer of a limited restart of broadcasts.

Ratings agency Moody's said the fraying political consensus on ERT's closure and slippage on a troubled privatisation programme after Athens failed to sell off state natural gas firm DEPA were negative for Greece's lowly C credit rating.

"Without a compromise among coalition partners, the risk of new elections will increase," the agency said.

A senior eurozone official voiced concern that Greece was hurtling back to its days of crisis and drama, given the slow pace of public sector reforms and privatisations. "It's kind of deja vu with Greece," the official said.

Opinion polls over the weekend showed a majority of Greeks opposed the shutdown, due rather to its abruptness – screens went black a few hours after the announcement, cutting off newscasters mid-sentence – than to the decision itself.

In Syntagma Square outside parliament thousands gathered to listen to radical left opposition leader Alexis Tsipras protest against the ERT shutdown and attack Samaras as a "great Napoleon of bailouts".

"But he didn't see, nor did he predict, the Waterloo that ERT workers and the great majority of people prepared for him," Tsipras told crowds of flag-waving supporters (via Zacharias Liangas, DXLD)

USA. WYFR Announcement, Dear Shortwave Friends,

We regretfully inform you that the final day of operation for WYFR will be June 30, 2013.

This station descended from WIXAL (an experimental class license assigned in 1927). In 1939 the call letters were changed to WRUL, and then changed to WNYW in 1966.

Initially, broadcasts came from Boston. In 1936 the station moved to Scituate, Massachusetts.

On October 20, 1973 Family Stations, Inc. took ownership of the station using the call letters WYFR. (FSI had been buying airtime from WNYW starting in January of 1972.) At that time, the station sported four transmitters and nine reversible rhombic antennas.

Construction started in Florida in 1976. On November 23, 1977 the first transmission from Okeechobee went on the air. For several years WYFR operated simultaneously from Scituate and from Okeechobee. The last broadcast from Scituate took place on November 16, 1979.

The Okeechobee site eventually grew to 14 transmitters and 23 antennas. And now we've gone full cycle.

Good listening to all, and 73,

(Dan Elyea, 1804 UT June 14, DXLD)

USA. "The NASB was pleased to welcome back an old member station, KVOH in Simi Valley, California, which has been off the air for some time. The license is still held by La Voz de Restauracion Broadcasting, but the Strategic Communications Group headed by Rev. John Tayloe is managing the station under the current owner's leadership. Tayloe's father-in-law was George Otis, who originally founded the station as part of the Voice of Hope network which included stations in the Middle East. The new managers are refurbishing the station's shortwave transmitter and they hope to have it back on the air within the next 90 days or so with programs in English and Spanish. The antenna is beamed from southern California toward Mexico and Cuba." (NASB Newsletter, National Association of SW Broadcasters, June 2013, via BCDX #1120, June 20, 2013) (Via DXPlorer)

Yep, they had transmitters in Lebanon - King of Hope - HBN - High Adventure. I have two QSL's in the 6200 range, first from 1981. They also had a transmitter in the 25 mb. This was shipped to Liberia around 2003. Voice of Liberty from Monrovia had brief tests on 11515 and then vanished. I got a QSL also from them. Some chat about it is at VANUATU 3945 R. Vanuatu, Port Vila. Back on air after an absence of some time. Noted at 1900 in the local Bislama language with a news program. The carrier was strong but the audio level was down a long way. It seems this frequency is the only one in operation on SW - nothing heard on 7260 kHz. 22 May.

Heard nx at 1930 UT June 10th on even 3945 kHz frequency, on remote unit in Australia, (wb. WORLDWIDE DX CLUB Top News #1119 June 12th, 2013)

ZANZIBAR. ZBC Radio, 6015 Dole. Jun 11, 2013 Tuesday. 0405-0440. Swahili talk by OMs. Mentions of Dar es Salaam and Zanzibar at 0419 (Zanzibar several times 0419-0421). Talk continued through BOH. Several more "Zanzibar" at 0431-0432. Part of the standard jingle at 0433 (chant only, no following song, maybe running late?) Not as good as yesterday (June 10) but still mostly readable although fading out now as our local dawn approaches. Jo'burg sunrise 0452 (Bill Bingham, Johannesburg RSA, dxldyg via DXLD)

What is a WebSDR?

A WebSDR is a Software-Defined Radio receiver connected to the internet, allowing many listeners to listen and tune it simultaneously. SDR technology makes it possible that all listeners tune independently, and thus listen to different signals; this is in contrast to the many classical receivers that are already available via the internet.

5 V Linear power supply for Perseus

I found the Stontronics T2526ST, which has a 230Vac input and a 5Vdc 1 amp regulated output. It is available from both Rapid and CPC. CPC had the edge in my case as on-line orders get free shipping, whereas Rapid charge £3.99 for P&P

<http://cpc.farnell.com/1/1/84868-ac-dc-linear-psu-5v-1a-2-1mm-t2526st-stontronics.html>

Price: £8.95 P&P free for on-line orders

Tracey, Did you folks in the UK have the old ZIP drives, 10-15 years ago? If so, you could use that power supply. My old zip drive power supply is a linear PS, 5V @ 1 AMP. It is noise-free.

(Best regards. Jerry Strawman, perseus_SDR@yahoo.com)

Hi Tracey, I've been using this stabilised linear p/s for some time : http://www.pollin.de/shop/dt/NzQ5OTQ2OTk-/Stromversorgung/Netzgeraete/Steckernetzgeraete/Steckernetzteil_FRIWO_FE4120_5_V_1_A.html

No noise at all.
