Issue no. 1899, April 8, 2018.

Deadline e-mail next issue: 0800 UTC, April 22, 2018.

Today we really have spring. 20°C and the shinging from a cloudfree heaven.

This issue is a little late. In this nice weather we decided to go to the karting track nearby. My brother in law's daughter, (only 12 years old) is driving. This race is the biggest in Sweden and the strat up of the season. 330 participants during the weekend.

It's really interesting to walk around among all the participants and their mechanics.

In this issue Anker Petersen has issued his trends in tropical bands broadcasting.

A declination from 1973 until now from 1106 to 102 stations.

That is sad news and the reason why most DX-ers, at least here in the Nordic countries only listen on MW and FM.

In beginning of May we have the annual ARC convention in Jönköping and I hope to see you there.

Keep on ....

New Zealand DX League 70 years

Dear friends, I'm very sorry for forgetting to mention the jubilee meeting of The New Zealand Radio DX League in my list of shortwave meetings. I had that information but can't understand why it didn't enter the list.

It is now probably late to join the Convention, but FYI it will be held 6-9 of April 2018 in Mangawhai near Auckland. If you want to send greetings to the meeting, please address them to club president Arthur de Maine (NZRDXLPresident at gmail.com) or club treasurer Bryan Clark (NZRDXLTreasurer at gmail.com).

My personal congratulations to NZRDXL at its anniversary. I have unforgettable memories from my visit the the NZ DX Convention in 1998. I wish you another great Convention!

Sound of Hope. News segment with brief musical bridges that are played between items; the same music has been used for many years, which certainly helps ID SOH; 1421 clear ID in English for "Sound of Hope," otherwise in Chinese; fair reception, listening in LSB to get away from VMW (Australia Weather West), which is in USB. Very rare to catch CNR1 (China) jamming SOH here. Recently have been monitoring SOH here and find they occasionally give these IDs in English, but are rather random and not at any set time, so it may take considerable listening before one hears them. 			Here in California, have recently been checking 7259.96 kHz. for the return of Vanuatu. Last week heard a second station on 7260.0 kHz. (other than the normal China heard there) and thought it could have been new activity from Mongolia, during my early morning (1130+ UT). Due to this, I had carefully been also checking 4830 kHz. and 4895 kHz. every morning, to see if they switched to these lower frequencies. April 7, I was unable to check, but Jim Young (also Calif.) did in fact hear carriers on both frequencies. So I think there is an excellent chance Mongolia is active again. Am very sure Vanuatu has not returned yet to their normal off frequency of 7259.96 kHz. (Ron Howard via WOR)

Improving. 15431 (CGS) Wai FM Limbang. Start of the Monday segment of the "Wai FM Limbang" portion of RTM broadcasts; pop songs; frequent IDs. Note that Aoki lists "RTM Wai/Limbang FM" here, which perhaps has confused some folks? Believe the "Wai FM Limbang" ID is only used on Monday & Thursday from 1315 to 1400, otherwise is just the straight "Wai FM" ID, or has someone actually heard a clear "Wai FM Limbang" ID at any other time/day? Was very interested to learn that Timm Breyel, who lives in Malaysia, posted to WRTH Facebook page, a log and audio clip for his 0410 UT reception on 11665; IDing as "Radio Tawau" & "Limbang FM, Radio Tawau". I had never heard these IDs before (not possible to hear them at 0410 at my QTH), so of course I very much enjoyed hearing his clear audi o clip! It certainly helps reception by living in Malaysia! https://app.box.com/s/7skup8625aqmqmeoqxzu0o2e9umag72a Thanks to Timm for passing this along, as well as his informing of this:  "With General Elections in Malaysia coming up in a few months, Sarawak FM and Wai FM seem to be operating round-the-clock. A few days ago (26 March 2018), I noticed Sarawak FM programming on both 9.835 kHz and 11.665 kHz after 18.00 UTC. Limbang FM - Radio Tawau (Sabah) was equally unusual; generally Wai FM (Sabah) is heard. Transmission is from Kajang (Selangor) / studio programming originates presumably in Limbang/Tawau (Sabah)." Dan Sheedy (Calif.) has also heard the greatly extended current schedule. Also RTM just celebrated their 72nd year of broadcasting on April 1 (Ron Howard, Asilomar State Beach, CA, USA)

A book in French that partly reveals an unknown history of radio in Guinea.

by Christian Ghibaudo (Translation from Italian into English by Antonello Napolitano)

Christian Ghibaudo from Nice in France, recently accepted my suggestion to buy a book in French about radio in Guinea (West Africa): "De la Radio banane" à La Voix de la révolution": L'expérience radiophonique en Guinée. (From "Radio Banana" to "The Voice of Revolution": the experience of radio in Guinea). He commented that the book was very interesting with a description of the political action of President Sékou-Touré. Christian shared with us some contents of the book which focus on the role of the radio in Guinea.

Radio came to Guinea in the 50s. In 1947 Guinea was the major producer and exporter of bananas among the colonies of French West Africa. It all started when the producers of banana and citrus fruits, who were far from the capital Conakry, announced their interest to have a source of information about their activity. The main objective of this radio was to disseminate the latest news about the export of bananas to France and for this reason, Radio Conakry was nicknamed "Radio Banane" ...

The first transmitter was installed in Conakry and its power was 300 watts. In 1954 a new transmitter arrived from France and the station started broadcasting on 1295 kHz with 1 kW. The music played consisted of contemporary French songs. Since 1956, all the French colonies obtained political autonomy and Radio Banane was being put at the service of the Guinean authorities. On 2 October 1958, Guinea proclaimed its independence.

January 1, 1959 marks the end of Radio Banane and the birth of Radio Guinea with the technical assistance of advisors from East Germany. (German Democratic Republic). With this change French songs disappeared from the air! Later, a new 100 kW transmitter was installed in Boullinet, this time with the help of West Germany (Federal Republic Germany)...

In1964 Guinea's President Sékou-Touré quickly aligned himself with the Soviet Union (USSR) and Radio Guinea became The voice of Revolution with many shortwave frequencies (7125, 4910, 15310, 6155 & 9650 kHz). Its aim was to export the revolution in the neighbouring countries and fight the White regimes of Angola, Namibia, Rhodesia and South Africa ...

The political climate changed after the death of President Sékou-Touré in 1984. Guinea abandoned the revolutionary program winning the confidence of the international community. In recent years, a new Broadcasting House for the RTG (Radio Television Guinéenne) was built and transmitters were revamped with the support of China.

A detailed review of the XHDATA D-808 and comparison with the Tecsun PL-660

After all the recent buzz about the new XHDATA D-808 I had to get one. I got mine 3 weeks ago and I couldn't help comparing it a lot with my PL-660. The PL-660 lends itself to such a comparison: it turned out to be the most sensitive shortwave portable with SSB in some comparison tests, so it became some kind of benchmark radio for this class of receivers and it has the same coverage as the D-808.

International Marconi Day - 21 April

IRTS Radio News Bulletin, 1 April 2018

International Marconi Day celebrates the huge part Guglielmo Marconi played in the development of wireless.

IMD is a 24 hour amateur radio event that is held annually to celebrate the birth of Marconi on 25 April 1874. In 2018 it will be held on 21st April from 0000 UTC to 2359 UTC

The purpose of the day is for amateur radio enthusiasts around the world to make contact with Historic Marconi Sites using communication techniques similar to those used by Marconi himself. This is not a contest but awards are made to stations contacting a requisite number of registered Award Stations. For a list of Award stations go to gx4crc.com/imd-stations/

The Howth Martello Radio Group (in Ireland) will be activating EI0MAR from the Martello tower in Howth again this year. In 1905 the tower was a receiving station set up to demonstrate the Marconi system to engineering staff from the British Post Office in support of an application for a contract for wireless telegraphy. The Royal Mail Ship Monarch with wireless telegraphy transmitting equipment on board sailed to various locations in the Irish Sea and its signals were monitored and logged in Howth. ### Trends in tropical bands broadcasting 2018

Since the Danish Short Wave Club International published the first Tropical Bands Survey in 1973, I have registered which stations are active, based upon loggings from our members and other DX-ers around the world. Here is an updated status where Clandestine and Pirate stations not are included.

During the past year the previous trend, that Tropical stations slowly disappear, continued throughout the world with a loss of about 15 stations. The reason is, that other media get higher priority, than keeping elderly Shortwave transmitters alive.

Here are some of the stations on the Tropical Bands, which have closed down during year 2016 or 2017:
